

HOW2 VALIDATION EXERCISES

Docman 10 - Coding

1) How do you convert an Action Task to a Coding Task?	<input type="checkbox"/>
2) Do you have a Coding Quick Step to 'Code myself'?	<input type="checkbox"/>
3) What are the three ways to choose a clinical code to save onto the patient's record from the document?	<input type="checkbox"/>
4) Search for codes in the Clinical Code Browser by typing in the code description, or by searching the hierarchy.	<input type="checkbox"/>
5) If the code selected is already present on the patient's EMIS record, what information will you see in the 'Add Clinical Code' panel?	<input type="checkbox"/>
6) When adding a date associated with your code, what does the 'Intellisense i' option do?	<input type="checkbox"/>
7) What should you remember when highlighting text from the document to copy?	<input type="checkbox"/>
8) Name two ways in which you can enter the appropriate value to the selected code.	<input type="checkbox"/>
9) If you select the Consultation Header of 'Problem' for your code, what extra information will you be prompted to add?	<input type="checkbox"/>
10) Once completed and displayed in the Activity column, edit the code you have added.	<input type="checkbox"/>
11) How can you quickly code BP results?	<input type="checkbox"/>
12) Will Comments that you add to the Coding Activity show up in EMIS Web?	<input type="checkbox"/>
13) If you decline a Coding Task, does the Sender of the Task get a notification of this?	<input type="checkbox"/>
14) How can you copy a block of text into another application such as MS Word?	<input type="checkbox"/>
15) When viewing Medical History, what happens if you press Ctrl-F?	<input type="checkbox"/>
16) Can codes added to EMIS via Docman be edited in Docman?	<input type="checkbox"/>